GED Goes to Any Height to Communicate Message

Twinsburg, OH. -- August 1, 2017 – GED Integrated Solutions (GED), the leading worldwide provider of integrated lean manufacturing systems for the window and door fabrication industry, today announced its latest achievement. On a recent trip to Tanzania, Africa, Chairman of the Board of GED and Managing Partner at Altus Capital Partners, Russell Greenberg, reached the summit of Mount Kilimanjaro. With this accomplishment Greenberg wanted to spread the word about GED and its successes with assisting its customers with window fabricating systems, glass fabricating systems and software solutions.

“Climbing Mount Kilimanjaro was a lifetime goal.” stated Greenberg. “Like any task, it is much easier with the proper preparation and equipment. This is a position I believe GED takes with their customers so I wanted to spread the word that GED will go to any height to assist their customers’ needs.”

About GED Integrated Solutions

GED Integrated Solutions is a worldwide supplier of fully integrated insulating glass and vinyl window and door fabrication systems, and the pioneer of the revolutionary Intercept i-3 Warm Edge spacer frame production system. The company’s i-3 platform works with its LeanNET® communications software to integrate every facet of a plant’s operation, increasing IG quality and production volumes and profits while decreasing operating costs and material wastage. GED’s commitment to innovation that addresses its customers’ needs is evidenced by the fact that 18 of the top 20 window and door manufacturers utilize GED’s equipment and software solutions.
